

SPP2: Prompt questions

Scenario one: James, Sarah and Craig
What should James do next?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• He could ask to speak to Sarah and explain how this pressure is making him feel; or• He could continue to be assertive and go and find other friends he can spend time with.
What kind of things could he say?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• “No thanks, I care too much about staying fit and healthy so I can be the best footballer I can be”; or• “I’m not interested, anyway what are your plans for the weekend?”
Should he speak to Sarah?	Example answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes, he should ask to speak to Sarah and explain how he feels about being pressured into smoking. She may not be aware of how this makes him feel.
Is what Craig and Sarah say correct?	Example answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• No, it isn’t true because even a few cigarettes have a negative impact on our health and you run the risk of becoming addicted and dependent on nicotine.

Scenario two: Paula, Sophia and Tasha
What should Paula do?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Paula could not give them the money and explain that she needs it for her own plans, they may be impressed that she is thinking about driving soon; or She could explain that she doesn't smoke so wouldn't want to share the cigarettes, but if they pay her back, she'll loan them the money.
What could she say?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> "Sorry but I can't spare a fiver, I need to save up for my driving lessons. I want to start lessons as soon as I'm 17!"; or "I don't smoke, it's not my thing, so no thanks. But if you're able to pay me back I can loan you the money."
Should she go along with what the girls want?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> No, she doesn't need to as it is her money, and she should not feel pressured; or A real friend should respect her wishes and be ok with her not wanting to share her money to buy cigarettes.
If she explained she doesn't want to, would the other girls not want to be her friend or might they be ok?	Example answers may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Her friends may completely understand and respect her wishes. This would take away any worries. If they aren't ok with it, then does she really want those types of friends?
